

FONDAZIONE HAYDN STIFTUNG

Internship Communication & Marketing Opera, Symphony and Bolzano Danza Festival

The Haydn Foundation of Bolzano and Trento is looking for interns in the field of communication and marketing to support the Opera and Symphony departments as well as the Bolzano Danza Festival.

The internship offers the opportunity to gain insight into the communication work of a major cultural institution and an international dance festival, and to actively contribute to ongoing projects. Tasks include supporting press and media activities, assisting with social media and website content, preparing newsletters, and contributing to the communication of productions, concerts and festival projects.

We are looking for motivated and open-minded candidates with an interest in cultural communication who are keen to contribute ideas and support audience-oriented initiatives related to music, opera and contemporary dance. Interns assist the communication team in the development, implementation and monitoring of marketing and communication activities (online and offline) and contribute to projects related to visibility, audience engagement and the positioning of the Haydn Foundation and the Bolzano Danza Festival.

Applicants should be students or recent graduates in communication, marketing, cultural management or related fields. A structured and reliable working approach as well as an interest in the performing arts are expected. Knowledge of German and Italian is an advantage.

We offer

- Insight into the communication and marketing processes of an established cultural institution and an international festival
- Participation in concrete projects in the fields of opera, symphonic music and contemporary dance
- Integration into a professional, interdisciplinary team
- Opportunities for professional development and hands-on experience
- Internship compensation in accordance with applicable regulations
- Free admission to events organised by the Haydn Foundation and the Bolzano Danza Festival
- Flexible working hours by agreement, compatible with studies or other professional activities, with the possibility of a hybrid working model

Application

Please send your application including a motivation letter and CV by e-mail to communication@haydn.it.
